

Monica Liaw

Monica Liaw is an illustrator, designer, and can tell stories in five languages. She has a BFA in Illustration from RISD, and received her Masters in Illustration at the Elisava School of Design and Engineering in Barcelona. Monica grew up in Taiwan and New Zealand, and she's currently based in Italy. Monica's art is inspired by everything from traditional Japanese music, ballroom dancers, old Italian uncles and dogs she meets on her travels. When not making art, you can catch her singing on her bike, jamming, or struggling gleefully at various dance classes.
